Helping to protect young families

yourtown takes on issues affecting the lives of young people in Australia.

Karen* and her five children suffered years of violence from her husband. They finally escaped and found shelter at yourtown's domestic and family violence refuge, where her children felt safe for the first time in their lives.

Karen says, "What helped me the most was knowing there was a community of people to talk to when I felt worried... The refuge helped protect me and helped me protect my children."

When you buy a ticket, you're helping to create brighter futures for children and young people.
