Talking about Mental Health

When a child or young person struggles with mental health, it has ripple effects for the whole family, even the whole community. Seeking help is a positive, healthy thing for young people to learn, especially when it comes to mental health.

Mental health is the number one concern that young people want to talk about when they contact Kids Helpline. In fact 1 in 4 counselling contacts relate to mental health. And 1 in 7 involve a young person seeking help for suicide-related issues.

Thanks to your support, qualified counsellors at Kids Helpline are here 24/7 for anyone aged 5 to 25 - no matter who they are, where they live or what they want to talk about.

Every 87 seconds a young person contacts Kids Helpline.

Your ticket purchase in this draw plays a big role in making sure all young people continue to have FREE access to this help and someone to talk to.

Thank you, and best of luck in this Draw.
