2022 is going to be another big year for us. We will continue to bring together positive change for yourtown and the young people we serve. We want all of yourtown to be an accessible place, where young people can get the information and support they need, on their terms, via the channels that work best for them. We want to be a safe place that empowers young people to find their place in society.

With your help, we will walk beside young people, care for them and evolve the way we work to ensure we are meeting their needs.

Thank you so much for believing in them.

I wish you a happy and safe New Year with more freedom to be with those you love.
