Young lives transformed, communities strengthened yourtown tackles issues affecting children and young people in your community. In fact, 32% of all contacts with our national Kids Helpline are from New South Wales. We also have 50 service centres located in areas of high disadvantage, including 15 centres in New South Wales.

When Chris in Western Sydney reached out to yourtown, our Work Enterprises service employed him on various projects so he could gain vital work experience and skills. Chris said, "I was able to achieve so much within six months... It gave me the confidence to keep going, set new goals and keep pushing myself."

When you buy a ticket in our Art Union, you help to strengthen communities by creating brighter futures for the young people living in them.
