

Conflicts of Interest

Position Statement

Introduction

yourtown is committed to providing innovative quality programs and services that support young people and their families, especially those who are marginalised and without voice.

To achieve this yourtown will maintain a high standard of professionalism and ethical conduct in its operations.

yourtown's Position

As a Public Company limited by guarantee and Public Benevolent Institution, it is essential that public confidence is maintained in yourtown and in particular in the integrity of our governance processes. yourtown operates in compliance with the Corporations Act, Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC) and other relevant legislation and contractual obligations.

Internal controls are developed, maintained and reviewed to ensure that conflicts of interest are identified, recorded and addressed in a rigorous and transparent way.

All personnel are required to act with integrity, objectivity, openness and honesty; be accountable for their decisions and actions; be subject to an appropriate level of scrutiny; and disclose any conflicts of interest related to their official duties.
