

Conflicts of Interest

Position Statement

Introduction

yourtown is committed to providing innovative quality programs and services that support young people and their families, especially those who are marginalised and without voice.

To achieve this yourtown will maintain a high standard of professionalism and ethical conduct in its operations.

yourtown's Position

As a Public Company limited by guarantee and a Public Benevolent Institute, it is essential that public confidence is maintained in the business of yourtown and in particular in the integrity of its governance processes. All personnel must act with integrity, objectivity, openness and honesty; be accountable for their decisions and actions; be subject to an appropriate level of scrutiny; and disclose any conflicts of interest related to their official duties.

yourtown operates in compliance with the Corporations Act, and other relevant legislation and contractual obligations. yourtown will regularly review its corporate governance practices to ensure that they continually reflect best practice.

Internal controls will be maintained to ensure that conflicts of interest are identified, recorded and addressed in a rigorous and transparent way.
