MEDIA ALERT

Maleny storybook Prize Home drawn 'live' this Friday!

The lucky winner of yourtown's storybook Maleny acreage Prize Home will be drawn 'live' from the stunning Sunshine Coast property this Friday, 29 July.

According to yourtown (formerly BoysTown) CEO Tracy Adams, close to 30,000 visitors have dropped into this fabulous property since it opened for viewing on 8 June, with many falling in love with the house and its picturesque storybook setting.

"Set on nearly 22 acres in magnificent Maleny, this luxury Prize Home really does feel like you're in the Hamptons and our Art Union supporters are loving it," Ms Adams said.

"The four bedroom home features a fireplace, indoor/outdoor living areas overlooking lush landscaped gardens and a 12m heated inground pool. It's even got its own cabin by the creek, ideal for finding your own space or visiting guests.

"We hear words like 'stunning', 'amazing', 'my dream life' from people walking through the home and its grounds. One comment particularly close to my heart was from a Facebook contributor who said 'It's just a beautiful home and being in this lottery gives a lot of people hope in owning their own home, not to mention helping your charity.'

"We're expecting lots of people to attend the draw all hopeful that it's their number that will come up. Anyone that wins will not be disappointed. Their win truly will be life changing!"

With private access to one of the best swimming spots in the Sunshine Coast, the property has views of the Blackall Ranges and is only minutes from the national park and waterfalls. Sunshine Coast beaches are about 30 minutes away and the Maleny town centre, local shops, cafés and restaurants are just around the corner.
