

Fundraising

Position Statement

Introduction

yourtown is committed to providing innovative quality programs and services that support young people and their families, especially those who are marginalised and without voice.

We ensure that fundraising activities are undertaken in an ethical and respectful manner in alignment with yourtown's mission and values.

yourtown's Position

yourtown's fundraising activities, including our charitable art unions, are conducted to raise funds for the provision of programs in accordance with the objectives of the company prescribed in the Constitution of yourtown. We will ensure that these activities comply with relevant legislation, industry standards and codes of practice.

We undertake to be transparent and accountable for the expenditure of all monies raised via fundraising activities and will ensure that any communications made to the public in the course of fundraising activities are clear, unambiguous and respectful.

We will not undertake any fundraising activities via door knocking, street appeals or through unsolicited telephone calls. Any personal information collected in the course of fundraising activities conducted, will remain confidential and will be managed in accordance with all privacy legislation. To avoid any element of doubt, we will never sell or use supporter's personal information obtained by us, for any other reason than for the original collection purpose, being support of yourtown.

yourtown will not engage in or endorse fundraising activities that are connected with products or services, which are reasonably proven to be detrimental to the health and well-being of individuals.

Throughout the conduct of our fundraising activities, yourtown will promote harm minimisation strategies and adhere to the principles set out in the Responsible Gambling Codes of Practice.