Position Statement

Introduction

yourtown is committed to providing innovative quality programs and services that support young people and their families, especially those who are marginalised and without voice.

We ensure that fundraising activities are undertaken in an ethical and respectful manner in alignment with yourtown's mission and values.

yourtown's Position

Our fundraising activities, including our charitable art unions, are conducted to raise funds for the provision of programs and services in accordance with the objects of the company prescribed in the yourtown Constitution. We will ensure that these activities comply with relevant legislation, industry standards and codes of practice.

yourtown will be transparent and accountable for the expenditure of all monies raised via fundraising activities and will ensure that any communications made to the public in the course of fundraising activities are clear and unambiguous.

We will not undertake any general solicitations via door to door activities. Any personal information collected in the course of fundraising activities conducted by yourtown will remain confidential and will be managed in accordance with all privacy legislation and any subsequent amendments as relevant. To avoid any element of doubt, yourtown will never sell or use fundraising information obtained for any other reason than for the original collection purpose, being support of yourtown.

Throughout the conduct of our fundraising activities yourtown will promote harm minimisation strategies and adhere to the principles set out in the Responsible Gambling Code of Practice.
