BoysTown

February 2016

Live where beaches and rainforest collide

Surrounded by lush rainforest on 1.95 acres and only ten minutes from the beach, BoysTown's newest Prize Home at Buderim Hinterland is the definition of 'living the dream'.

From an expansive alfresco entertaining area, to a beautiful infinity edge outdoor pool surrounded by luscious rainforest, this $1.68 million prize home truly encapsulates the Australian lifestyle.

For many, an ideal home may be by the ocean, or on acreage, or surrounded by a rainforest. With BoysTown's Buderim prize home, you get all three!

Featuring four bedrooms, three bathrooms, two living areas and a study, the hinterland property has ample space, ensuring an entertainer's paradise perfect for any occasion.

Located only 10 minutes from the beach, cafés, restaurants, schools and shops, the property boasts all the conveniences of suburban living but with the serenity of your own private retreat.

BoysTown CEO Tracy Adams says the latest Art Union Prize Home will provide one lucky person with the ultimate lifestyle change to live in the best of all Australian living situations.

"This home has something to suit every taste - beach, acreage and rainforest - all in one gorgeous location," Ms Adams said.

"The home will not only be a dream come true for one lucky Australian, but tickets sold will benefit the hundreds of young Australians BoysTown helps each day...and that's what it's truly about."

For those who prefer the allure of suburban-living, the second Prize Home on offer is a beautiful home in Melbourne.

The Burwood-based property is located only 14km from the CBD and has three large bedrooms, two bathrooms, an outdoor deck, double garage, ducted air conditioning, double glazed windows, polished timber floors and Caesar stone benches.

The $1.2 million home also comes with $350,000 gold bullion and a $50,000 travel voucher.

"If you prefer suburban living, the Melbourne home is a perfect alternative, not far from the city and with $350,000 gold, your opportunities are endless," Ms Adams said.

Ms Adams said the art unions are the primary source of income for many of BoysTown's programs and services that tackle issues such as unemployment, mental health, and family and domestic violence.

"When you purchase a ticket in a BoysTown Art Union Prize Home, you not only have the chance to change your own life but you also help change the lives of others. You give young people choices, support and someone to listen," Ms Adams said.

Tickets for the Prize Homes cost only $15 and are available from www.boystown.com.au/lot until 10pm (AEST) on Wednesday, 2 March 2016.

The lucky winner will be drawn at 10am (AEST) on Friday, 4 March 2016.
